

2014 RENO JAZZ FESTIVAL Rules of the Road

All school rules are always in effect!

Parents will be asked to pick up students (at parents expense) who disregard school rules.

Refeable offenses will be dealt with by Mr. Davis and EHS Administration upon our return.

- You represent Esperanza Entertainment Unit...we are professionals!
- Get the rest you need to give your best competitive performance.
- Stay in touch with your chaperone – they want to help. You may call them on their cell phone.
- Prescription medications must be reported at Wednesday night Luggage Check-in. Properly label all medications including dosages and times to be given.
- No smoking. No drinking. No drugs!
- Use the money you brought, do not borrow or loan money.
- Keep track of your valuables.
- Do not bring: laptops, ipads, DVD Players, Game Boys, etc.
- NO BOYS in girls rooms and NO GIRLS in boys rooms.
- Remain in YOUR hotel room after room check.
- Treat all hotel property and school property with respect. Damaged rooms or missing property costs will be divided amongst all students assigned to that room.
- Conduct yourself and others with pride and respect.
- Be kind to each other, keep words and actions controlled.
- NO public or private displays of affection. Keep your hands, lips, etc. to yourself.
- Bus seating will be changed as needed.
- Room phones can only be used to call room-to-room.
- Let's enjoy listening to the other bands – the best jazz groups in the Western U.S. are competing at this festival. We are one of them.
- Use common sense - If you wonder . . ."Should I...?" Then DON'T!
- Let's bring down the house like we did last year!
