 - New guidelines email that came out about Covid: we are already doing them. We are abiding by the rules and doing what we need to do to keep kids safe.
 - If a student has to miss for any reason, they can check google classroom for missed assignments. Not a good idea to ask if they "missed anything important"
 - Scheduling for field shows: Some will perform for comments, for ratings, or for competition purposes. For Competition, we will likely perform between 2pm-9pm. We will have actual schedules as it gets closer.
 - Disney's community arts showcase is on pause, we would no longer get free admission to Disneyland. Because of this, we have chosen to pause our Disney performance.
 - Traditional Wednesday rehearsal starts at 7:55, there are 5 exceptions to this throughout the year.

- If your student is having academic problems: please do not use my class as leverage. Let me know if your student is struggling before it's a problem. I can find a student to help your student.
